OUR NICKNAME

The unique nickname "Gentlemen" was first established in the fall of 1922. With the majority of Centenary men also soldiers, the moniker "Gentlemen" was a proud, looked-up-to name and a logical choice. A tongue-in-cheek account that first mentioned the new nickname appeared in the 1923 Yoncopin (Centenary's yearbook) in that season's football summary.

"...The boys were beginning to round into pretty good form by this time and as several recruits had been recently added we were beginning to resemble a real college football team."

"Yet there was some doubt on the eve of the first game. Reports from the Marshall camp had them recruiting from the boiler factories and we were made to believe that the Marshall team was coming to Shreveport to mop-up with the 'Gentlemen' (you see we had just taken the name of the 'Centenary Gentlemen' and far be it from us to start a dispute just at that time).

"Well, we put on our best manners but just couldn't help running up a 77-0 score..."

The nickname has stuck ever since and it was a natural to call the women's teams the "Ladies" when the school began women's sports in the 1960's.

1993-94 OUTLOOK

CENTENARY ENDS CONSTRUCTION...

GENTS HOPE TO RIDE TO THE TOP OF THE TAAC IN 1993-94

After two trying seasons, fifth-year head coach Tommy Vardeman is hopeful that the "rebuilding" is over.

You see, in Vardeman's first two seasons (1989-90 and 1990-91) the Gents recorded an impressive 39-20 (.661) record and finished first and second in the Trans America Athletic Conference respectively. Since then, the Gents have been rebuilding for the future...and according to Vardeman the future is now.

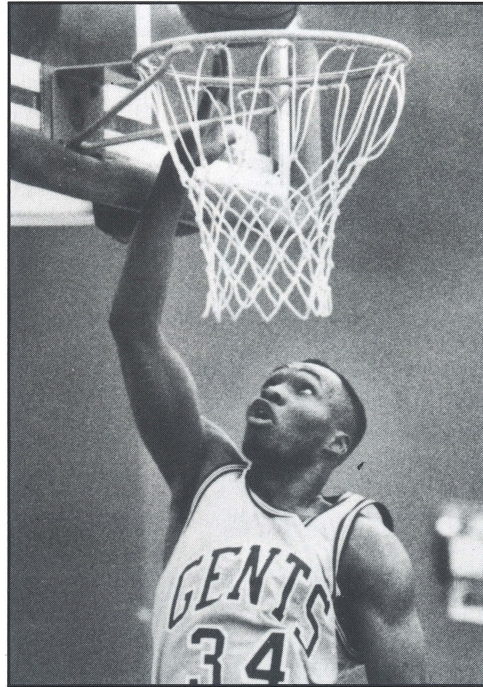

"We've talked about rebuilding around here for the last two seasons, and I'm getting tired of it," explained Vardeman, who has posted a four-year coaching record of 58-56 (.509).

"If we keep rebuilding a third season in a row we'll have a skyscraper."

--Tommy Vardeman

The rebuilding should be over as the Gents return three starters off last year's squad, including one of the TAAC's premier players in 6-7 senior forward Nate Taylor. Joining Taylor as returning starters are 6-6 junior swingman Jamar Comeaux and 5-10 sophomore point guard Anthony Stephens. Six other lettermen from a year ago return from a team that suffered through a 9-18 overall record and a 4-8 record in the TAAC (tied for 6th).

In Taylor, the Gent coaching staff has someone that can dominate action at any given time. Selected the last two seasons to the All-TAAC Second Team, Taylor led the Gents in nearly every offensive category a year ago. The Longview, Texas native averaged 13.9 ppg (13th in the TAAC), 9.7 rpg (1st in the TAAC) and shot .458 from the field (10th in the TAAC) to lead the Gent attack.

NATE TAYLOR

TAAC's Pre-Season Player-of-the-Year

Taylor had a season-high 26 points in Centenary's 100-85 win at Southwest Conference opponent Texas Christian, and pulled down an amazing 22 rebounds in a double overtime loss to Stetson late in the year.

The TAAC's Pre-Season Player-of-the-Year has a chance to join former Centenary greats Robert Parish and Willie Jackson as the only the players in school history to score at least 1,500 career points and grab 1,000 career rebounds.

Pushing Taylor for the starring role on the squad is Comeaux, a slashing action-packed guard that averaged 13.4 ppg (15th in the TAAC) as a redshirt sophomore last season. Comeaux sat out the 1991-92 season with an ankle injury but quickly made a name for himself last season by being named to the All-Tournament Team at the Dr. Pepper Invitational in Waco, Texas early in the season. The Mossville, Louisiana product then turned the heads of TAAC coaches with his team-best average of 15.0 ppg against league opponents, which ranked ninth-best in the conference.

The third returning starter from a year ago is Stephens. As a freshman he started every game at the point, averaging 8.3 ppg and 3.2 apg.

Stephens showed signs of things to come when he led all Gent scorers with a 16 point effort at Auburn in December. He was later named to the TAAC's All-Freshman Team and will once again be relied upon heavily as the catalyst for the Gents potent offensive attack that averaged 84.1 ppg to rank 25th in the nation last season.

Besides Taylor, returning for their final year in the Maroon & White are a trio of seniors in: 6-6 guard Lucien Bianchi, 6-10 forward Allan Jaster, and 6-0 guard Derrick Jacobs.

Bianchi, who is currently awaiting word from the NCAA about a junior college redshirt year that could give him another season of eligibility, made three starts last season but averaged just 2.4 ppg, primarily off the bench. His fortay is the three-point shot, as 14 of his 16 field goals last season were treys.

Jaster has seen action in all but three games during his tenure at Centenary and the Gents expect him to finally step forward and improve on last season's 4.1 ppg and 3.0 rpg he garnered off the bench.

Jacobs' quickness makes him a tremendous asset to the Gents uptempo style and provides experienced depth at the point guard position.

Trenton Smith, a 6-1 shooting guard, joins classmate Comeaux to the ranks of junior returnees. Smith averaged 5.1 ppg, and like Bianchi, likes to shoot the three-pointer. Both shooting guards have incredible three-point range...an area the Gents have been well known for throughout the last couple of seasons. In fact, last season the Gents averaged 7.9 three-point field goals per game, which was 14th best in the NCAA.

A trio of returning sophomores, including Stephens, gives the Gents some of their best depth at the guard positions. Stephens, Aljay Foreman, and Walter Camper all return for their second seasons, assuming Camper successfully heals from a compound fracture of his left ankle that he suffered midway through last season.

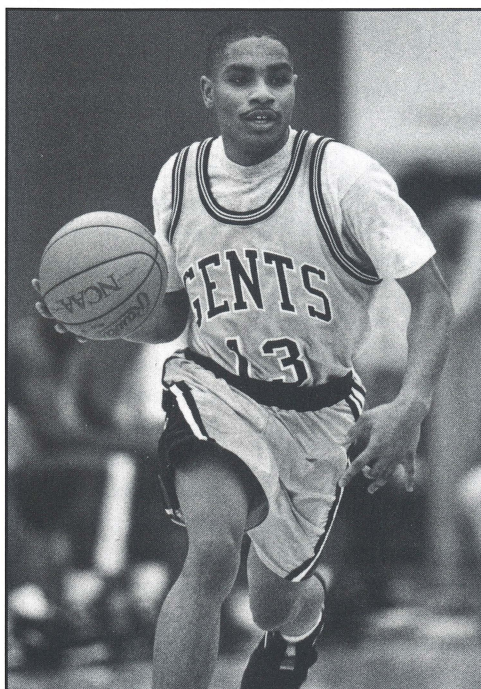

Prior to that injury, Camper was on the verge of breaking into the starting lineup after averaging 5.9 ppg. Foreman had 10 starts last year and averaged 6.8 ppg and 2.7 rpg, while adding a team-high 2.4 steals per outing that ranked him third in the TAAC.

A quartet of recruits will step on the Centenary hardwood for the first time when the Gents open their regular season home schedule on December 9 versus Wiley College. The Gent coaching staff went after big men in the recruiting period to help offset Centenary's last place ranking in league rebounding margin last season, and apparently they have found a few jewels. All forwards, the newcomers include: Paxton Ross, a 6-8, 210-pound Louisiana prep star the past four years at Martin High, and a trio of players from the New Mexico Military Institute in James Harvey (6-8, 200), James Thomas (6-6, 215), and Josh Wagoner (6-7, 215).

The Gents will face a challenging 26-game regular season slate this year that includes a season-opening visit to Tulane and an early December trip to the

ANTHONY STEPHENS
1992-93 All-TAAC Freshman Team

Lobo Classic, hosted by the University of New Mexico.

Highlighting the 13-game home schedule is Rice, who went 18-10 last season on way to finishing second in the Southwest Conference, and area rival Louisiana Tech.

Also included on the schedule is the TAAC Tournament after a brief one-year absence. The league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament will be on the line March 3-5 in Orlando, Florida, with the winner of the tournament becoming the first team in the country to reach "March Madness".

If Vardeman finds a way to blend his experienced veterans with a talented group of newcomers and Centenary stays injury free, the Gents could be on their way back to the top of the TAAC...and this time they could exit at the very top floor for their first-ever trip to the big dance.

HEAD COACH / ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

TOMMY VARDEMAN

Entering his fifth season as head coach and his first as athletic director at Centenary, Tommy Vardeman knows what it takes to produce a winning program. In his first two seasons as head coach the Gents did just that, posting a combined record of 39-20 (.661) and earning a Trans America Athletic Conference Championship in 1989-90 and a second-place finish in 1990-91. Vardeman was also named the TAAC Coach-of-the-Year his first two seasons, while producing two TAAC Player-of-the-Year selections in Larry Robinson and Patrick Greer.

But the last two seasons have been something Vardeman and his team would like to forget. Due to a mixture of inexperience and injuries to key personnel, Centenary has suffered through two straight 18-loss seasons to drop Vardeman's career coaching record to 58-56 (.509).

"It's been tough the last two seasons," said Vardeman. "We've looked good at times and we've looked extremely bad at other times. It's just been a combination of inexperience and devastating injuries that has been our problem."

Vardeman first stepped on the Centenary campus the Fall of 1979 as an assistant coach. After 10 years as an assistant/associate coach here, Vardeman garnered his first collegiate head coaching job when Tommy Canterbury retired at the conclusion of the 1988-89 season.

In his first season, "TV" led the Gents to a 22-8 overall record, a TAAC Regular Season Championship, and the school's second straight appearance in the TAAC Tournament Finals televised nationally on ESPN.

A 1965 graduate of Stephen F. Austin and a native of Center, Texas, the 51-year old Vardeman has a wealth of experience and a knowledge of the game nearly unsurpassed in the TAAC. His 27 years in the coaching business began at Cleveland (TX) High School and included stints at Crosby Channelview and Liberty-Eylau in the Texas prep ranks.

Vardeman moved on to the college ranks as a graduate assistant at Louisiana Tech where he completed his Master's of Education in 1970. Vardeman then moved on to Missouri Baptist Junior College and Henderson State (Arkansas), before returning to Louisiana Tech as the head assistant for four years.

Following a one-year hiatus from coaching to enter private business, Vardeman got the call from Centenary to move to Shreveport and assist the Gent basketball program. While Vardeman has been coaching at Centenary the Gents have won the TAAC regular season championship and the TAAC tournament title besides finishing the regular season runners-up once and tournament runners-up four times.

"We have built a consistent program here at Centenary," adds Vardeman. "We have had our ups and downs but overall we have a very successful program that we can be proud of."

One thing that makes Vardeman most proud is his players' success in the classroom. The Gents were recently recognized by an NCAA published report as being one of only 14 Division I schools with a 100% graduation rate for the 1983-84 and 1984-85 Freshmen classes. In fact, during Vardeman's tenure at Centenary 20 of 22 Freshmen that played for four years here have gone on to earn their degree.

Known in coaching circles for his witty repartee and fierce competitiveness on the sidelines, Vardeman has instilled a break-neck style of play into his charges. The Gents have consistently been at the top of the TAAC in scoring each year he has been head coach, as Centenary evened finished his first season (1989-90) fifth in the nation in scoring at 95.9 ppg. Vardeman has also been fond of employing a full court man-to-man pressure just to pick up the pace of the game.

COACH VARDEMAN AND ESPN SPORTS COMMENTATOR TIM BRANDO AT THE 2ND ANNUAL HALLOWEEN HOOP-LA

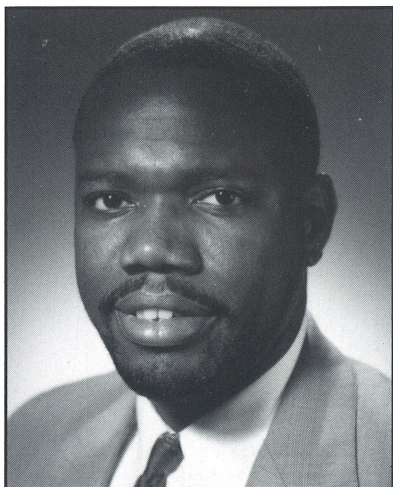

"We like to go deep into our bench and throw as many fresh players at the opponent as we can," comments Vardeman. "It's not that we don't care about defense, because we work on that probably the most. But the object of the game is to outscore your opponent...and it's alot more fun to watch."

This past summer Vardeman was named Centenary's Athletic Director after Walt Stevens announced his retirement following 12 years at the helm.

Vardeman and his wife, the former Sharon Crocker of Garland, Texas, have two daughters; Julie and Jennifer (who is married to Centenary student assistant coach John Edwards). Both of Vardeman's daughters are graduates of Centenary.

ASSISTANT COACHES

WILLIE JACKSON

Willie Jackson begins his sixth season as an Assistant on the Gent coaching staff. Prior to his arrival on the Centenary campus, Jackson spent two years as head basketball coach at Caldwell Parish High School.

Gent fans still remember "Jack", racing up and down the court from 1980-84. Arguably the finest player to ever sport a Centenary uniform, he tossed in a school record

2,535 career points (22 ppg over four years) and grabbed 1,013 rebounds (second only to former Gent and current NBA great Robert Parish's 1,820).

Jackson was drafted in the fourth round of the NBA Draft by the Houston Rockets, but became the final guard released before the start of the 1984-85 season. Jackson spent the next two years (84-85, 86-87) playing in the CBA.

During his years at Centenary, Willie became the only player in TAAC history to be named the league's Player-of-the-Year three times, and as a freshman he was voted the TAAC Newcomer-of-the-Year. The Sibley, Louisiana product tossed in 30 or more points in 21 games as a Gent, as well as having led his high school team to a then national-record 100 consecutive basketball wins.

Willie is married to the former Zebber Satcher (a fellow Centenary graduate and a Lady hoopster). Together they have two daughters, five-year old Ashley and newborn Alexis.

JOHN EDWARDS

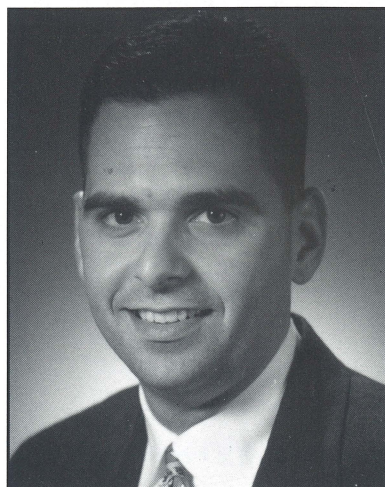

John Edwards begins his third season as the Student Assistant Coach for the Gents.

A former high school football and basketball star at Houghton High before coming to Centenary, John did his student teaching at C.E. Byrd High this past fall where he served as an assistant coach on the school's district 1-5A Championship football team.

John, 23, is married to the former Jennifer Vardeman, the younger daughter of Coach Tommy Vardeman.

STEVE ROCCAFORTE

Steve Roccaforte begins his fifth season as the Gent Assistant in charge of recruiting. Prior to arriving on the Centenary campus, Steve spent three years as a Student Assistant Coach at Lamar University before graduating in 1989.

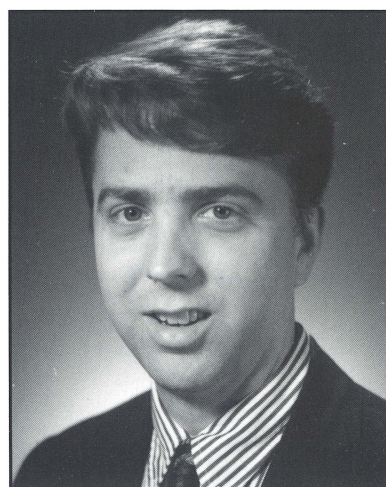

"Rock", a tireless worker who spends many hours on the road recruiting, is an instrumental part of the Gents success.

"Rock is a bloodhound in the recruiting process", said Gent mentor Tommy Vardeman. "He finds the kids that will fit into our program and stays with them until they show up on campus. His organizational skills and commitment to our program makes him a valuable asset."

In addition to coordinating the recruiting process and handling day-to-day basketball operations, "Rock" handles all of the Centenary "Big Men" and supervises the weight lifting and conditioning programs of the team.

Roccaforte, a native of Port Arthur, Texas, is 27 and single.

PAUL RASMUSSEN

Paul Rasmussen begins his second season as an Assistant Coach for the Gents this year.

Prior to graduating from Centenary in 1990, Paul worked as a student manager for Coach Dave Bliss at both Southern Methodist University and the University of New Mexico.

Following graduation, Paul earned his master's degree in Sports Management and Marketing from the University of Richmond. He has also worked in Washington, D.C. for ProServe, a sports marketing firm.

Missing the sidelines, Paul returned to his native Shreveport to re-enter coaching last year. His coaching duties at Centenary include: on-campus recruiting, conditioning, and working with the Gent defense.

Paul, 25, is also Centenary's Director of Annual Giving.

THE TAAC

CENTENARY BEGINS 16TH YEAR IN THE TAAC...

Made up of some of the strongest private schools and fastest growing state schools in the Southeast, the Trans America Athletic Conference boasts a mixture of old and new, tradition and change, that cannot be matched. Founded on September 19, 1978, by eight NCAA Division I Independents (Centenary, Hardin-Simmons, Houston Baptist, Mercer, Northeast Louisiana, Oklahoma City, Pan American and Samford), the TAAC has evolved over its 16-year history without changing its initial premise: "assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

The TAAC adds a new member and a new championship in 1993. Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton, Florida, will compete for all fall sports championships in 1993 and in golf and tennis in the spring. The women will play in the Conference basketball loop in 1994-95 as will the baseball team. The men's basketball team will begin a full Conference schedule in 1995-96. The TAAC, which began sponsoring women's championships after a merger with the New South Women's Conference in 1991, will crown champions in a record 13 sports in 1993-94, along with men's and women's all-sports champions and the second annual academic champions.

The Conference reached new heights last season in the pursuit of superior education and athletic competition. A Conference record 301 student-athletes earned All-Academic status by posting a 3.0 grade average during the 1992-93 academic year.

Trans America athletes and teams rank among the nation's best, and the NCAA Championships provide the season-ending proving ground for them all. In 1993-94 the TAAC will send the Conference champions to the NCAA's in four team sports: men's and women's basketball, baseball, and softball. Entrants into the men's and women's soccer tournament are also likely with the strength and ranking of the Conference teams. The volleyball and men's soccer champions are scheduled for an NCAA bid beginning in 1994.

GENTLEMANIA

Centenary has been in five TAAC Basketball Championships, more than any other school in conference history...Centenary won the TAAC Regular Season Basketball Championship in 1990 and the TAAC Tournament in 1980 in Monroe, Louisiana...Every Gent appearance in the TAAC Championship has been against the host team.

Centenary's overall athletic department is strong--in 1988-89 Centenary became the first TAAC school to appear in three championship games in the same year (basketball, baseball, and soccer)...the championship streak reached five...In the past five years, Centenary has played in eight TAAC Championship games in various sports...The Gent soccer team won three straight TAAC titles from 1988-90, the Gent basketball team finished tourney runners-up in 1989 and 1990, and the baseball team finished tourney runners-up in 1989, 1992, and 1993.

TAAC FACT

Centenary holds 36 Trans America Athletic Conference records. The Gents have 22 Individual Records and 14 Team Records, by far the most of any school in TAAC history. Willie Jackson, currently an assistant coach at Centenary, holds more TAAC records (single-season and career) than any player with seven after his brilliant career from 1980-84. Patrick Greer holds the second-most records after establishing five TAAC bests from 1987-91.

1992-93 IN REVIEW

A LOOK BACK...

INJURIES, INEXPERIENCE, AND INCONSISTENT PLAY MADE FOR A LONG SEASON IN 1992-93

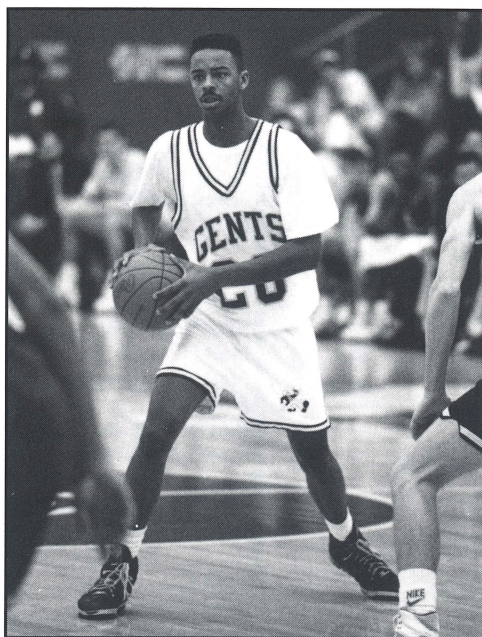

If one had to sum up Centenary's 1992-93 season in one phrase, Murphy's Law certainly comes to mind. "If anything can go wrong, it will" seemed to have been Centenary's Law last season.

The season began with high expectations. Head Coach Tommy Vardeman returned his top four scorers and top two rebounders from the previous year's team that struggled to a 10-18 overall record and a 5-9 conference record to finish seventh in the TAAC. The Gents also had leadership with four seniors coming back to go with six other returning letterwinners and a redshirt sophomore.

It seemed Centenary was ready to return to the winning ways that they had grown accustomed to in Vardeman's first two seasons as head coach when they won the Trans America Athletic Conference regular season championship and posted a runner-up finish to go with a combined record of 39-20.

But the Gents couldn't prepare themselves for what was about to happen. Centenary would lose two of those seniors (Louis Lumpkins and Stacy Lawson) in mid-season due to an academic casualty and personal reasons. Another senior, Shannon Washington, and freshman Walter Camper would also miss parts of the year due to injuries. As a result of the injuries and losses of key personnel, Vardeman was forced to play a younger team that finished a disappointing 9-18 overall and 4-8 in the TAAC (6th place).

After opening the season with a 115-79 win over Wiley, the Gents traveled to the Dr. Pepper Invitational for a battle with highly regarded UNC-Charlotte. The Gents set a Tournament record with 26 steals but lost an 81-62 decision to the 49ers (UNCC later declared Centenary the winner due to forfeit after playing an ineligible player). The next night, Centenary hit 11 three-pointers and survived a late scare to defeat Valparaiso 92-89 in overtime. Redshirt sophomore Jamar Comeaux was named to the All-

JAMAR COMEAUX

Led team with 15.0 ppg. vs. TAAC opponents

Tournament Team for his efforts after scoring 31 points, grabbing 12 rebounds, and collecting 11 steals in the tourney.

The Gents then took their 2-1 record to Fort Worth, Texas for a meeting with Southwest Conference foe Texas Christian. What followed was the biggest win over a SWC team since the Robert Parish led Gents pounded the University of Texas 96-71 on December 5, 1974...almost 18 years ago to the day the Gents crushed TCU 100-85 on December 7, 1992.

Centenary was on fire the whole night, especially in the first half when they jumped out to a quick 17-2 lead. The Gents shot a season-high .586 (34-58) from the field and a school-record .727 (8-11) from behind the three-point arc to defeat the Horned Frogs. Nate Taylor had a season-high 26 points to go with senior Tyrone Warren's 20. Camper also had a perfect night, scoring 13 points off the bench (5-for-5 from the field, 2-for-2 from the charity stripe). He also scored on a layup with 13:06 remaining to give Centenary their biggest lead of the game at 67-43.

After falling to Louisiana Tech 82-69 at Hirsch Coliseum in Shreveport, the Gents and their bruised egos manhandled East Texas Baptist 90-64 to improve to 4-2 overall. However, Centenary lost their next three games to Northwestern State, Auburn, and Colorado to drop below .500 for the first time.

Centenary trailed by just five points with just over six minutes left in the first half at Auburn, but the Tigers went on an 8-0 run following a timeout to take control and go on to defeat the Gents 86-61. At Colorado, Centenary held a 41-39 lead late in the first half, only to see CU go on a 20-2 run the last four minutes of the stanza on way to a 117-96 win.

The Gents then hosted Southeastern Louisiana to begin TAAC play. Centenary held off the Lions 87-84 behind Washington's 23 points and 6 rebounds.

Two nights later Murphy's Law struck again in a 86-73 home loss to Central Florida. In that game, Centenary trailed 44-41 early in the second half when Camper suffered a fractured ankle that ended his promising freshman campaign.

After losing to Grambling 89-86 on a last-second shot for the second time in two years, the Gents limped back into TAAC play versus Mercer sporting a 4-7 overall record and 1-0 in the TAAC. Centenary responded by defeating the pre-season TAAC favorites 89-82 as Comeaux poured in 22 points. The following game, freshman Aljay Foreman posted career highs of 26 points, 11 rebounds, and 7 assists to help the Gents pound the University of Dallas 111-79 and improve to 6-7 overall.

The Gents had won three of their last five games but would lose their next three games (vs. Stetson, FIU, and Samford) by a total of just 10 points and would end up winning just two of their final 13 games.

Those two wins though were quite impressive and gave Centenary something to build upon for the coming year. The Gents raced past Georgia State in a thrilling 111-107 homecoming win thanks to a 22 point, 7 rebound afternoon from Comeaux, and beat eventual TAAC Champion Florida International 84-81 in overtime. Taylor followed a career-high 22-rebound effort in a double OT loss to Stetson with a 17 board outing against the Golden Panthers of FIU.

Taylor ended the season leading the TAAC with 9.7 rebounds per game (11.5 rpg vs. TAAC) and was named second team All-TAAC for his efforts.

Stephens was named to the All-TAAC Freshman Team after averaging 9.8 points, 2.7 rebounds, and 4.1 assists per game against league foes.

THE COLLEGE

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Founded in 1825, Centenary College is the oldest private liberal arts institution West of the Mississippi River. Centenary provides a superior education for students capable of intellectual leadership and for those who can benefit from study in an academic community where excellence is encouraged and individuality is respected. Centenary places emphasis on preparations for various professions. The college is an institution of the United Methodist Church.

Centenary boasts a student/professor ratio of 11 to 1 for its 1100 graduate and undergraduate students, while classes rarely exceed 30 in popular introductory courses. Centenary is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The college offers the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Music degrees in 37 subject areas and a broad range of programs in a variety of pre-professional and interdisciplinary fields. Recently, a Centenary education was recognized in "Money's Guide to the Best College Buys" as the 27th "Best Buy" in the United States, as well as ninth in the southeast region and tops in Louisiana based on the quality of education and competitive pricing Centenary offers.

Shreveport is located on the West bank of the Red River in Northwest Louisiana. The metropolitan area has a population in excess of 300,000 and forms the geographical, cultural, and economic center of the region known as the Ark-La-Tex. Centenary is located two miles from downtown Shreveport and is widely known for its natural beauty and stately Georgian architecture.

MAGALE LIBRARY

CENTENARY FOOTBALL IN THE 1920's and 1930's

The Gents regularly played in front of packed crowds in Shreveport at a site that is now the Centenary baseball field.

ATHLETIC HISTORY

Centenary has a treasured history in athletics, dating back to the mid-1800's. While the first basketball game on record didn't occur until 1921, Centenary had already fielded teams in sports such as baseball and football.

As a matter of fact, Centenary once boasted of having one of the finest football teams in the nation. The Gents posted a perfect 10-0-0 record back in 1927 with a team coached by Homer Norton. That year, Centenary defeated four Southwest Conference opponents (SMU, Baylor, Rice, and TCU) to start the season and finished off the memorable campaign with a 59-2 whipping of Louisville. Centenary outscored its opponents 261-38 over the 10-game span.

In that era 13 Centenary football players went on to professional gridiron careers, including: Conway Baker, Buddy Parker, and Cal Hubbard.

Hubbard, a mountain of a man at 6-2 and 253 pounds, was the most illustrious of the group, starring on championship teams and earning induction into the National Football League Hall of Fame and the NCAA College Football Hall of Fame. He is a triple rarity in that he also is in the Major League Baseball Hall of Fame as an umpire.

Centenary also owns one NCAA Football record that still stands today--most punts by two teams in one game. The answer is 77 punts as the Gents battled Texas Tech to a 0-0 tie on November 11, 1938 in Shreveport. In that game players reported the rain was so hard that the water was entirely above their shoes.

Centenary later discontinued football in 1947 due to the poor oil economy in the Ark-La-Tex region but the school's athletic success continues still today.

ATHLETICS TODAY

Centenary is a charter member of the Trans America Athletic Conference (established in 1978) and sponsors 14 men's and women's intercollegiate sports. Basketball, baseball, soccer, cross-country, tennis, golf, and rifle for men; soccer, cross-country, tennis, volleyball, gymnastics, softball, and rifle for women. In the 15-year history of the TAAC the Gents have won 10 conference championships. The Centenary Athletic Department was the recipient of the Jesse Fletcher Award in 1983-84 for the TAAC's best all-around program and has been runner-up for the honor in the years 1987-88, 1988-89, and 1989-90.

Centenary is also the alma mater of current NBA great Robert Parish of the Boston Celtics, Professional Golfer Hal Sutton, former U.S. Olympic Gymnast Kathy Johnson and former Major League Baseball Pitcher Cecil Upshaw.

ADMINISTRATION AND STAFF

PRESIDENT

Dr. Kenneth L. Schwab, an award-winning educator with a keen interest in leadership and strategic planning, is in his third year as Centenary College's 34th President.

Dr. Schwab came to Centenary from the University of South Carolina where he was Executive Vice President for Administration and Associate Professor of Education in the Department of Educational Leadership and Policies. He has taught graduate courses in leadership in higher education and institutional planning and research. He is also credited with the establishment of a strategic plan for the total University system.

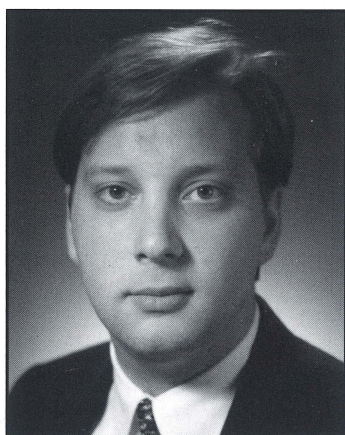

Prior to that, Dr. Schwab served 16 years at Guilford College, a private college in Greensboro, N.C., where he worked as Dean of Students, Assistant Dean of Students, and Assistant to the President for Institutional Planning and Community Relations.

Dr. Schwab holds the Doctorate of Education degree (1978) from Indiana University, the Master of Education degree (1972) from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro, and the Bachelor of Science degree (1969) from Purdue University--where he graduated with honors as the 1969 Outstanding Senior.

He has done post-graduate studies at the Center for Creative Leadership in Greensboro, Johns Hopkins University, and Harvard University. At Harvard, he was awarded an American Council on Education Fellowship in Academic Administration.

Dr. Schwab and his wife, Pat (who also has a doctorate degree in education), are the parents of three sons, Kempton, Carlton, and Christopher.

SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR

Cory Rogers was named Sports Information Director on September 1, 1993, after serving five years as the student assistant SID at Centenary College.

Rogers takes over the Sports Information office from Steve Murray, who accepted a job as the Sports Information Director for the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference in his home state.

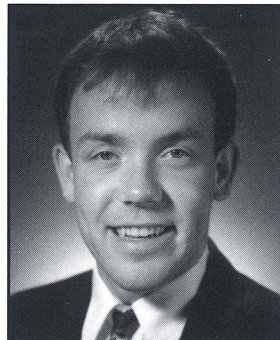

Besides overseeing the publicity and promotions of all 14 NCAA Division I sports at Centenary, Rogers is also the Compliance Director.

Rogers, the Gent basketball contact, handles the play-by-play for all Centenary radio broadcasts on the road, and is a feature reporter for "The Tommy Vardeman Show" that airs on Home Sports Entertainment across a five-state region, and KTAL-TV in Shreveport.

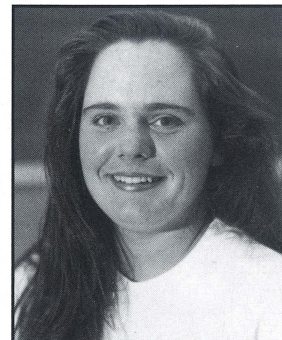

A 1993 graduate of Centenary, Rogers was the baseball and soccer contact while an undergraduate. As a senior, his multi-sport media guide for the men's and women's soccer teams was named best in the district and ranked 16th nationally. Rogers was also awarded the "Ace Higgins Award" for being the top student assistant SID in Louisiana.

Rogers, 23, is a native of Shreveport and a 1988 graduate of C.E. Byrd High School. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

BOORAS

YOU'RE LISTENING TO CENTENARY BASKETBALL ON KOKA RADIO (980 AM)

For the fifth consecutive year Centenary Basketball will be carried live throughout the 1993-94 season on KOKA Radio (980 AM) in Shreveport. Pat Booras will handle the play-by-play at all home contests while Centenary Sports Information Director Cory Rogers will handle the play-by-play at all road games.

Booras, in his 9th season as "The Voice of the Gents" on various radio broadcasts, graduated from Centenary and was the school's Sports Information Director from 1984-1990. Currently holding steady at 32, Booras is now the Director of Media Relations for the Shreveport-Bossier City Sports Foundation.

Be sure to catch all of the live action this season--complete with pre-game, halftime, and post-game shows with the coaches.
